The Royal mail steamer Arabia arrived here this afternoon at 24 o'clock, with Liverpool dates to Saturday, the 4th inst., being one week later than our previous advices.

England .- Throughout great Britain the war was quite popular, and the additional estimates for the army and navy were considered moderate.

The Turkish War.—No hostilities are reported either on the Danube or in Asia, on secount of the severe weather and heavy snows. The weather had become milder.

France and England insist that Russia shall evacuate the Turkish territory before the 30th of April. All parties are still arming for the coming struggle.

The Greek insurrection is in a fair way of being suppressed.

The latest received by mail is contained in the Vienna correspondence of the London Times, which under date of the 2d instant, states that an Austrian manifesto was about to be published, announcing that Austria will occupy Bosnia and Servia. A panic had been caused on the Vienna Bourse by this intelligence.
France, England and Russia continue their armaments on an immense scale.

Sir Charles Napier is appointed to command the Baltic Allied fleet. Admiral Seymour, in command of 20 ships, had already assembled at Spithead. The ice in the Baltic was breaking up, and the Russian fleet at Cronstadt, being liberated, were preparing to sail.

A doubtful rumor prevails that the Czar has laid an embargo on British ships in Russian ports. The Russians are making ostentatious preparations to cross the Danube, and Omar Pacha is making preparation to check the advance.

The Turkish troops no longer occupy any place except Kalafat, north of the Danube. There has been considerable fighting in small parties wherever they came in contact, but nothing has transpired of importance.

France.-The Emperor Napoleon opened the Legislative Session on the 2d inst. His speech commenced by referring to the defi-cient harvest; but he said 7,000,000 hectolitres of wheat had been imported, and more was on the way to supply the deficiency. A famine had been averted, but a war was beginning, and France had gone as far as honor permitted to avoid a collision, but she must now draw the sword. He had no views of aggrandizement. The days of conquest are past, never to return.

Europe, reassured by the moderation of the Emperor Alexander, and his successor Nicholas, seemed to doubt the danger which threatened it from the colossal power, which by successive encroachments, embraced the North and Centre of Europe, and which possesses almost exclusively two internal whence it is easy for its armies and fleets to launch forth against civilization. But its recent unfounded demands in the East has awakened Europe. France has an equal interest with England in preventing Russian supremacy over Constantinople, for to be supreme in Constantinople, is to be supreme in the Mediterranean. Erance, therefore, was going to Constantinople to defend the freedom of the sens, as well as to protect the rights of Christians, and France's just rights in the Mediterranean. She was going with Germany to aid Germany, and with Austria to defend her frontiers against the preponderance of her too power-ful neighbor. She was going in short, with all those who desire the triumph of right, of justice, and of civilization. Strong then, in the nobleness of our cause; in the firmness of our alliances, and the protection of God-1 hope soon to arrive at a peace which shall no longer depend on the power of any one man Spain.—A formidable insurrection has occurred at Saragossa. The insurgents held the castle of Aljaforra and other strongholds for a considerable time, although the Captain General attacked them with three columns of infantry, and several cannon. The insurgents finally retreated, pursued by the cavalry.

The insurrection at Saragossa exploded permaturely on the 5th inst. The details are very obscure. Gen. Concha is deeply implicated.

The latest rumor states that the insurgents had been joined by the garrison stationed at Huesca and had made another stand.

MURDERS AND LYNCH LAW IN WISCONSIN. -There has been for sometime a violent fend existing in Wisconsin between two parties in relation to a claim of about 40 acres of land. About a year ago, it resulted in the death of Peter S. Furman, at the hands, it is alledged, of Frd'k Cartwright, who had been in jail until a couple of weeks ago, when he was released on bail, and returned to his family, in the neighborhood of the disputed land, known as the "Indian Land." On Saturday night after his arrival home, about 60 men surrounded his residence, a log house, and some three or four of the leaders entered and inquired of the family for Cartwright. His wife replied that she did not know where he was; upon this they opened the door leading upstairs and saw Cartwright standing at ing upstairs and saw Cartwight sand Cart-the head thereof, armed with a musket. Cartwright first spoke, ordering them to come no further, but not heeding him they rushed up and Cartwright fired, killing two of the party James Landon, who leaves a wife and child, and Mr. Troop, both of middle age; and then being sensible that further resistance was useless surrendered himself into the hands of an officer with the assurance of protection; thence he was removed to a Jus-tice's office for examination. He was, how-ever, soon after forcibly taken from the offi-cers, tied hand and foot, and but a short distance from the place where he was seized and suspendid from the neck until dead. This occured on Sunday about five o'clock in the afternoon, and the body was allowed to remain until about ten, when the friends were permitted to remove it. Mr. C. was out sixty years of age and leaves a wife and large family. Education will do wonders. 137 In Sweden a new religious set has sprung up, called the Contemplations, beccause they believe that in meditating incessantly on the essence and qualities of God, which they call contemplating God, they attain the percetion of saints. They think that every body who does not join them will certainly be damned. A peasant named John Olsson, of the village of Oites-lactt, in Gothenburg, cut the throats of his two children, one aged a year, the other eighteen months, to, as he said, preserve them from eternal condemnation .-

CURE FOR ERYSIPELAS .- A simple poultice it is said, made of cranberries pounded fine and applied in a raw state, has proved a certain remedy in many cases, and has never been known to fail in any instance, when applied on making its appearance. Persons troubled with the humor will find great and mmediate relief by applying this simple remedy every time it shows itself.

IT IS AN ERRONEOUS IDEA That disease cannot be cured except by taking large quantities of medicines into the stomach, in a great many cases of which much injury is done, although the disease in point be actually cured. The coats of the stomach by continued use of nauseating mixtures, frecontinued use of nauscating mixtures, frequently become so much disordered that the digestive function is veriously injured—the result of which is dyspepsia, nervousness, cholies, alternate diarrhee and costiveness, flatulence, nightmare, &c, &c. Would it not, therefore, be very desirable to possess a remedy, which being applied externally would excite the absorbents to increased action, and thus carry off through this medium, the dele-terious principle which is the direct cause of the disease? Surely every thinking man will admit that this would not only be the most pleasant, but by far the safest means to effect the desired end. The almost superhuman cures performed by the Arabian physicians in the days of old ware mainly affected. In the

This great Liniment (which is now to be had of most respectable druggists and merchants in every town in the united States) is daily effecting dures which seemed beyond the power of medicine to control—consumption, bronchitis and liver complaints in their first stages, nervous affections, indigestion, enlargement of the spleen, scrofulous tumors, goitre, &c., &c., are frequently cured, and always relieved by its use. It is unsurpassed as an ano-dyne—relieving severe pains in a few minutes after its application, it soothes the irritated nerves, and produces that delightful tranquility so grateful to the nervous invalid. Sprains, bruises, wounds, burns, sore throat, chilblains, rheumatism, sun pain, &c., &c., are speedily cured by it, and for nearly all aliments in horses or cattle, requiring an extern-

WHAT DO THE PHYSICIANS SAY? Listen to the testimony of an eminent phy-sician in favor of M'Lane's Vermifuge, which is now universally acknowedged to be the best in use; even members of the medical faculty (who are so often opposed to the use of patent medicines,) cannot withhold their approval

Lind, Stark co., Ohio, Jan. 8, 1849. I have used Dr. M'Lane's Worm Specific in my private practice, and am prepared to say that the unparalleled success with which I have prescribed its use, both for children and have prescribed its use, both for carrier adults, induces me to say the most in its favor of any specific or patent medicine ever before brought to my notice. The mode of administration, the smallness of the dose, and the certainty of its officacious effects, give it, in my opinion, a decided advantage over any other medicine of the kind before the public. Purchasers will please be careful to ask for Dr. M Lance Celebrated Vermifuge, and take none else. All other Vermifuges, in comparison, are worthless. AYER'S PILLS.

FAMILY PHYSIC.

The series of a public demand for an effective purpative pill which could be relied on as sure and perfectly safe in its operation. This has been prepared to meet that elemand, and an extensive trial of its virtues has conclusively shown with what success it accomplishes the purpose designed. It is easy to make a physical pill, but not easy to make the best of all pills — one which should have none of the objections, but all the advantages, of every other. This has been attempted here, and with what success we would respectfully submit to the public decision. It has been unfortunate for the nation hitherto that almost every purgative medicine is acrimonious and training to the bowels. This is not. Many of them presuces so much griping pain and revulsion in the system as to more than counterbalance the good to be derived from them. These pills produce no irritation or pain, unloss it arise from a previously-existing obstruction or derangement in the bowels. Being purely vegetable, no harm can arise from their use in any quantity; but it is better that any medicine should be taken judiciously. Minute directions for their use in the several diseases to which they are applicable are given on the box. Among the complaints which have been speedily cured by them, we may mention Liver Complaint, in its various forms of Jaundice, Indigestion, Languor and Loss of Appetite, Listlesaness, Irritability, Bilieus Headache, Billious Fever, Fever and Ague, Pain in the Side and Loins; for, in truth, all these are but the consequence of diseased action in the liver. As an aperient, they afford prompt and surveiled in Continua and Scurvy, Colds with sortens of the body, Ulcers and impurity of the blood; is short, any and every case where a purgative is required.

They have also produced some singularly successful cures in fibrumatism, Gout, Dropsy, Gravel, Erysipolas, Palpitation of the Heart, Pains in the Back, Stomach, and Side. They should be freely taken in the spring of the year, to purify the blood and prepara the system for CROUP, ASTHMA, AND CONSUMPTION.

This remedy has won for itself such notoricty from its cures of every variety of pulmonary disease, that it is entirely unnecessary to recount the evidences of its virtues in any community where it has been employed. So wide is the field of its usefulness, and so numerous the cases of its cures, that almost every section of the country abounds in persons publicly known, who have been restored from alarming and even desperate diseases of the lungs by its use. When once tried its superiority over every other medicine of its kind is too apparent to excape observation, and where its virtues are known, the public no longer hesitate what antidote to employ for the distressing and dangerous affections of the pulmonary organs which are incident to our climate. And not only in formidable attacks upon the lungs, but for the midder varieties of Colds, Coughs, Hoarsmans, &c.; and for Chitleren it is the pleasantest and safest medicine that can be obtained.

As it has long been in constant use throughout this section, we need not do more than assure the CONSUMPTION.

As it has long been in constant use throughout this section, we need not do more than assure the people its quality is kept up to the best that it ever has been, and that the genuine article is sold by—
